Over A Million Michigan Vote Turnout Is Expected

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan voters went to the polls today to pick a Democratic U. S. Senate candidate in a primary election pitting the power of old-line party support against the independent drive of Detroit's young mayor.

The race matching former six-term Gov. G. Mennen Williams against Jerome P. Cavanagh was the standout on a ballot with candidates for governor congress, legislature and numerous local offices.

Well over one million persons were expected to vote. Lines were expected to be long in vote-rich Detroit because of an unusually complicated ballot.

Williams and Cavanagh each planned to vote this morning at their home precincts in Grosse Pointe and Detroit respectively. Williams also planned a full round of plant gate and party headquarters handshaking stops.

Each answered voters' telephoned questions for an hour election eve on separate limited network telecasts.

Republican Gov. George Romney and democratic state chairman Zolton Ferency did not have to worry about the election because each is unopposed for his party's nomination for governor. The same applied to recently-appointed U. S. Sen Robert Griffin, a Republican.

Michigan's 18 incumbent congressmen were all favored to win renomination.

Pictured Rocks Bill Is Approved By House Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Interior Committee approved today a bill to create a Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore on Michigan's Upper Peninsula on Lake Superior.

The committee passed over for the time being a Senate-passed bill to establish the Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore in Western Michigan.

Rep. Wayne N. Aspinall, D-Colo., chairman of the committee, said he expected the committee to take up the Sleeping Bear Dunes bill later this week.

Aspinall said other bills on the committee's agenda were not controversial and indicated he wanted progress on these. The Sleeping Bear Dunes bill, Aspinall said, is "somewhat controversial."

The committee agreed to an amendment by Rep. Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz., to the Pictured Rocks bill, sponsored by Rep. Raymond F. Clevenger, D-Mich., which would provide that the state donate the approximately 5,000 acres of state-owned land within the proposed 67,000-acre lakeshore area.

Udall said the states should be required to donate land for such federal establishments rather than have the federal government pay them for land.

The committee turned down an amendment which would permit exchanges of federal land for the state - owned land within the Pictured Rocks area.

The Pictured Rocks proposal would cost the federal government an estimated $13,221,000, including $6,873,000 for land acquisition and $6,348,000 for development.

The Pictured Rocks bill specifies the park is to be divided into two zones. A 227,500 - acre inner zone bordering Lake Superior would be bought outright by the U.S. Park Service and be developed for recreational use.

An outer zone would be a 39,500-acre buffer belt on the inland side of the park. It would remain in private hands but would be used for sustained yield timbering.

Racial Unrest Hits In Omaha

By The Associated Press

Nebraska Gov. Frank Morrison returns to Omaha today to discuss what action might be taken to return peace to the city's North Side where racial violence has erupted for three straight days.

Even as the governor planned the return, gasoline bombs hit half a dozen stores early today. No one was injured and no serious damage was done. Some merchants stood guard with shotguns through the night seeking to prevent the looting which occurred Sunday and Monday.

In Chicago, larger police patrols prevented another potential racial explosion in a Northwest Side neighborhood after 1,500 residents, mostly Puerto Ricans, poured into the streets.

Isolated disturbances began Monday night after two officers, attempting to quell a domestic quarrel in the area, shot and killed a 37-year-old man.

Police in Providence, R.I., were struck by stones and bottles Monday night as they broke up a disturbance involving 100 young Negroes after a civil rights rally.

UP Pilot Leads Raid On Bridge In Hanoi Area

SAIGON (AP) — A flight of U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs led by 1st Lt. Martin J. Neuens, 24, of Iron Mountain Mich. reported destroying a railroad bridge 53 miles northwest of Hanoi Monday.

The pilots also said they destroyed one span of another railroad bridge and damaged a railroad car two miles from the first bridge. They completed their day's mission by damaging four buildings in a military complex 60 miles northwest of Hanoi and a truck 95 miles northwest of the Communist capital, they said.

Water Accident Death Toll Rises

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan's water accident death toll is continuing to increase sharply as the hot weather continues.

State police provisional figures show 212 persons died in 368 water accidents during the first seven months of the year, compared with 159 deaths in 282 accidents on July 29, 1965.

The department as official reports on 184 of this year's drownings. Victims included 24 boat operators, 16 boat passengers, 91 swimmers or waders, 17 who fell through ice, 33 who fell from a bridge, bank, dock or pier, one who fell into a septic tank or well and two who attempted to rescue others.

Leonard Terrien Aids Rescue Of Wounded Pair

GLADSTONE —A telephone call from their son, Leonard Terrien, from Austin, Texas, ended suspensful waiting last night for Mr. and Mrs. Bernetn Terrien of 1502 Montana Ave.

Leonard is a parttime student at the University of Texas and is employed on electronic computers there.

He told his parents that he was on his way to lunch on the campus when there was the sound of shots. With others he stayed inside and out of the view of the sniper-killer.

Through the window they saw a couple walking on the campus — and then the sniper felled them, first the woman and then her husband as he tried to assist her.

Terrien and his companions rushed to their aid, carried the wounded couple to safety through a window. The man and woman were wounded but neither died.

The Terriens lived in Wells for 22 years and moved to Gladstone last year. Leonard is a 1960 graduate of Holy Name High School and served four years in the Air Force at Kincheloe.

He was employed by Data Control in Minneapolis and was transferred to Texas in June, 1965. He was married the same year and his wife is employed as a teacher in a parochial school in Austin.

Army Chief Is Purge Victim In Red China

TOKYO (AP) — Red China disclosed today it has replaced its army chief of staff and indicated that other military leaders have fallen in the spreading Communist purge.

The army newspaper, Liberation Army Daily, said Lo Jui-ching, the army chief, had been replaced by Yang Cheng-wu, fourth-ranking deputy chief of staff, a popular military figure and old friend of Mao Tze-tung, party chairman.

There were indications that the purge also may have crushed the chief of the general political department, Hsiao Hua; the chief procurator, Huang Huo-hsing; the navy commander, Hsiao Ching-kuang; the commander of public security forces Hsien Fu-chih; the deputy defense minister, Hsu Shih-yu, and other defense department deputies.

The New China News Agency listed Yang for the first time Monday night as "acting chief of the general staff" of the Chinese People's Liberation Army.

It did not say why Yang had taken over from Lo. The latter had been one of the most powerful political-military figures in China.

Infantrymen In Fire Fight With North Regulars

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U. S. infantrymen and North Vietnamese clashed near the Cambodian border today in a series of running fire fights that could be building up to a major engagement.

U. S. military headquarters reported four sharp actions throughout the day in the rugged central plateau region 10 miles east of the Cambodian border and 235 miles north of Saigon.

Three of the clashes broke off after short fire fights but at last report the fourth was continuing toward nightfall. All of the actions, a U. S. spokesman said, involved company-size units of the 3rd Brigade task force of the U. S. 25th Infantry Division. The size of the enemy forces was not known.

Field reports earlier said several regiments of North Vietnamese regular army troops were known to be operating in the area, 20 to 30 miles southwest of Pleiku City.

The infantrymen killed 26 North Vietnamese in the mountain region Monday after a Communist attack. This raised enemy dead to 618 in three months of Operation Paul Revere against light American casualties, a spokesman reported.

Elsewhere in South Viet Nam, there was little ground action.

On the political scene, Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, 35, promised South Viet Nam an elected government by November 1967 and said he would devote himself exclusively to his job as air force commander after that.

The premier made the pledge at the start of a campaign to spur interest in elections for a constitutional assembly on Sept. 11. The assembly will be given six months to write a constitution under which South Viet Nam can change over from military to civilian rule.

Ky had previously indicated he expected to remain in power until the middle of next year but avoided commitment to a precise date, citing the difficulties of establishing civilian government in a nation torn by war and political dissension.

Murder Record Set In Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) - Police say the 72 persons murdered in July 1966 made the most violent month in Chicago's history. The massacre of eight student nurses helped swell the total.

Police said Monday 263 persons have been murdered in Chicago during the first 212 days of 1966, well above Chicago's normal average of a murder a day.

Of the 72 murders last month, police said arrests have been made in all but 10.

The exceptionally hot weather was blamed by Capt. Francis Flanagan, commander of homicide, for the higher number.

Senate Plan Is Let President Halt Air Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate goes to work today on legislation which would create the machinery that leaves to President Johnson any decision to order a halt to the 26-day airlines strike.

The Johnson administration prefers a bill which would have Congress itself halt the walkout. Organized labor strongly opposes any back-to-work order—whether it originates on Capitol Hill or at the White House.

The debate was on even before the politically explosive strike measure reached the Senate floor.

"They passed the buck to the President of the United States," said Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., of the joint resolution which would authorize Johnson to force 35,000 striking machinists back to work on five major airlines.

Under its terms, Johnson could halt the strike for up to six months.

Morse said he will ask the Senate instead to have Congress write a strike-ending order.

Wife And Mother Of Gunner Are Victims

AUSTIN, Tex. AP — Charles Joseph Whitman, known as a quiet, thoughtful young man, killed his wife and mother to spare them embarrassment, he wrote, at what he was about to do — shoot everybody he could from the University of Texas Tower. He killed 13 more persons, counting an unborn baby, before police shot him to death.

In addition to the 16 dead, 31 persons were wounded in Whitman's day of carnage Monday.

Whitman, 25, an architectural engineering student at the university, held officers at bay for more than an hour and a half as he poured rapid, accurate fire from the observation section of the University tower, tallest building in Texas, capital.

After it was all over, officers found notes beside the bodies of his wife and mother explaining something of what he intended — and that he wanted to save them from embarassment.

The terror ended when two policemen and a university employe crept to a platform above the sniper's position and gunned him down at close range.

A Texas landmark, the library tower is a slender four-sided shaft rising 307 feet above the center of the campus. Its observation section, above the 26th floor, commands a view of the entire city and the rolling hills beyond.

Was Marine Sharpshooter

Whitman, who qualified as a sharpshooter in the Marine Corps, dropped some of his victims at distances as much as two blocks away.

Others fell on the broad campus mall surrounding the tower and lay untended in the 98-degree heat as Whitman kept rescuers at bay with his riddling fire. Police crouching behind trees and buildings answered with blistering rifle and shotgun volleys which left the tower pitted and marked. The gun battle lasted from 11:48 a.m. until 1:20 p.m.

Posing as a repairman, Whitman had hauled to his perch on a workman's three-wheeled cart a footlocker containing his arsenal: Two rifles, one equipped with a telescopic sight; a sawed-off shotgun which police said he had purchased that morning; a highpowered pistol; a semiautomatic pistol, a hunting knife. The locker also contained a supply of food and water, a plastic container of gasoline, and hundreds of rounds of ammunition.

When police identified Whitman after the slaughter ended they received a telephone request from the sniper's father-in-law to check the Whitman home, a small duplex some distance from the campus.

Wife Stabbed

They broke in through a window and discovered Whitman's wife, 23, stabbed to death.

Then they went to his mother's fashionable apartment near the campus and found her stabbed in the chest and shot in the head. His mother was the estranged wife of C.A. Whitman of Lake Worth, Fla.

Detective Lt. Merle K. Wells said Whitman had left notes at both residences revealing something of what he planned to do and why. A notice saying "Please do not disturb" was pinned to his mother's door.

One note was left on his wife's blood-soaked bed, the second with his mother's body.

Police did not reveal their exact contents but police reported that the notes said Whitman "hated his father with a mortal passion," and that his mother "gave the best 25 years of her life to that man."

"Decided To Fight"

The notes said Whitman couldn't understand "the pressures bearing down" and had "decided to fight it out alone."

Police said the notes showed Whitman "was very definitely mentally disturbed." They also disclosed that he had talked for two hours with a psychiatrist.

The note found in his mother's apartment, police reported, said he killed her to "relieve her of her suffering, that he didn't want her embarrassed by all of this."

As postscripts to the notes, police said, Whitman had written:

"12:30 a.m. — mother already dead.

"3 o'clock — Wife and mother both dead."

Shortly after 9:30 a.m., he went to Sears, Roebuck and Co., bought a shotgun on credit, took it home and sawed off the stock and barrel.

At 11 a.m., officers said, Whitman carted his footlocker to the tower's elevator and rode to the 27th floor, as high as the elevator can go. Then he dragged the heavy three-wheeled cart up four short flights of stairs to the foyer of the observation section.

Kills 4 In Tower

There he killed three persons —the woman custodian of the tower and another woman sightseeing with a small boy.

At 11:48 a.m. university police received a trouble alarm from the tower. Two unarmed security officers rode to the top.

When they heard shots and saw three bodies they went back down.

"They carried no weapons," A. R. Hamilton, university police chief, said.

"We told people to stay in their offices. Then we called the police."

When the shooting began a number of persons rushed outside the campus buildings to see what it was about. The sniper's deadly fire felled some of them. Others dashed back inside and

Harvey Reviews City's Projects

The programs, projects and plans of the City of Escanaba were reported to the Kiwanis Club by City Manager George Harvey at the club's luncheon meeting at Marco's Monday noon. The sepaker was introduced by Bob Snow.

Harvey described the city's planning function and gave its history, which dates back to 1948.

In the up-dating of the city master plan, Escanaba will update its zoning ordinance, including a chapter on the regulation of signs which would, in the city manager's opinion, provide uniformity and a better appearance of the Ludington St. business district.

The city manager reported that Robert Schmeling, president of the Delta County Historical Society, a few months ago suggested placing a sign at the entrance to the city directing attention to the Historical Museum in Ludington Park.

Study Objectives

As a result of this suggestion a structure has been erected whereon not only the Museum sign but others of local organizations can be erected. The signs are at the city's three entrances — north, south and west. The Kiwanis Club was the first of the service clubs to take advantage of the new sign structure.

Harvey told the Kiwanis Club of the reorganization of city boards and commissions, with some of the groups reduced in the number of their members.

The city is hopeful that the boards will be helpful in establishing goals that will benefit the city and its people, he said.

For example, the Safety Committee is being asked to study traffic lights, pedestrian traffic at intersections, and pedestrian safety on S. 23rd St. and elsewhere on primary streets in the city.

Public Works

The accomplishments of the public works department were reported to the Kiwanians by Harvey: 30 alleys paved, curb and storm drainage structures on 12 blocks scheduled for paving, the installation of 1,500 feet of sanitary sewer, and the undertaking of the installation of storm drainage on S. 21st St. from 18th Ave. to Park Ave. so the entire area will be drained in the future.

Harvey reviewed the preliminary work on 5th St. from 1st Ave. N. to 1st Ave. S., where the storm drainage system is being investigated and cleaned out prior to paving N. 15th St. from Ludington to 1st Ave. N.

The city is to undertake the installation of 1,000 feet of sanitary sewer on Old State Road from 23rd St. west to 26th St. and will shortly be putting the final touches in closing over Butcher's Creek as part of the storm drainage system from 17th St. east on 12th Ave. S., he said.

The work of the electrical department and its plans and programs for the next few years were reported by the city manager.

The city has an extensive program of street lighting improvement and in addition is improving the lighting around churches and schools. Within the next week or so the city will start the installation of improved lighting on the U. S. 2-41 highway from 3rd Ave. N. to the C&NW overpass.

The recent dry weather has pushed water consumption in Escanaba to new high records, Harvey reported. Last month one million gallons of water was pumped — compared to a total of six million gallons for all of last year.

The water plant is evidently having "growing pains" and the city is investigating the possibility of obtaining federal assistance toward increasing the capacity of the plant, the city manager said.

Federal Aid

The city has applied to the Economic Development Administration for assistance on two projects: Extension of sewer and water to the city's industrial park on the north side; and for sanitary sewers for the area south of Sylvan Point, he said.

An application has been made with the Department of Housing and Urban Development for the extension of a water transmission main west of 23rd St. from 8th Ave. S. to 18th Ave. S. and west along Old State Road to Willow Creek Road.

Harvey discussed the city's recreation program and said he is hopeful the objectives of the Recreation Board may be attained. The tennis court at Rose Park is contemplated and there is hope the area may be enlarged for recreation facilities, he said.

Replying to questions, Harvey told the Kiwanians that Police Chief Harold Finman is investigating the problem of noise made by motor scooters, and pointed out that it is difficult to legislate against motor scooters when lawn mowers are allowed to make the same noise.

EYC Announces Venetian Night

One of the most popular and certainly the most colorful event of the summer season in Ludington Park, the annual Venetian Night sponsored by the Escanaba Yacht Club is scheduled this year for Wednesday, Aug. 10.

Venetian Night final plans were announced today by Victor Nelson and Earl Owen, committee co-chairmen, and EYC Commodore Walter Lewke. Fred Costell is the third member of the committee.

The City of Escanaba cooperates in the event, sponsored by the Yacht Club for the entertainment of the public, and supplies flares and other materials for the Venetian Night.

The first Venetian Night was held in Escanaba more than 20 years ago and the event has gained in popularity with the public. The number of visitors has grown and last year several thousand spectators watched the spectacularly colorful show at the Escanaba yacht basin.

Band To Play

"All boat owners will be welcome to participate in the event," said Nelson and Owen. "It makes no difference whether the boats are inboard or outboard, sail or power — everyone is invited to join in the fun of the parade of boats."

Flares and flare holders and colorful materials for decoreting the boats will be supplied, and many boat owners have pennants and flags they will break out for the occasion also. Strings of colored lights add color to the marine parade.

The Escanaba City Band will play a concert on the Yacht Club grounds to open the Venetian Night program. Paul Cowen is the band director.

One of the features this year will be the salute to the boats and skippers. Each craft will carry a card and number and each will be introduced by Commodore Lewke of the EYC as the boats pass the reviewing stand.

Skippers Invited

The brightly lighted Walter Doehler Swindrift II will lead the boats in their three circles on the basin and channel. About 35 boats are expected to participate including the Escanaba fleet of 13 seagull class sail craft, the largest fleet of seagulls on the Lakes.

John Walch's power yacht Lady Marian will again carry Donna Ann and The Shandels, a musical unit that proved popular at last year's Venetian Night.

Among the boats participating will be those from other communities as well. Marquette boat owners will have two power and one sail craft here and a special invitation is being given the Gladstone Yacht Club to join the fun. The flares and holders are supplied without cost to the boat owners.

In the event of rain the Venetian Night will be rescheduled for Thursday night, Aug. 11.

Many Bands To Play In Parade

HERMANSVILLE — Lester Johnson, chairman of the Bands committee for the 72nd annual U. P. Firemen's convention which will be held in Menominee Aug. 4-6 today announced that eight bands which will perform at the firemen's parade on Thursday, Aug. 4 at 7 p. m.

Green Bay Pollution

The state governments and local governments are now at work developing a working relationship with the federal government in the control of pollution in public waters.

The outcome of this effort is of huge and historic importance to the Lake States, which are the custodians of the world's greatest fresh water supply. No area of the Great Lakes is so concerned with this problem as the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, which is the world's fresh water capital, bounded by three of the five Great Lakes — Superior, Michigan and Huron.

The federal government is now up to its neck in the work of curbing water pollution and it has created a public impression that pollution grows inexorably with population and industrialization and that efforts to curb it must be started immediately or America will stagnate beside its dying waters.

* * *

While the problem of pollution is a big and serious one, this view of the situation isn't a factual one. The recent University of Michigan meeting on water quality standards heard William H. Wisely, executive secretary of the American Society of Civil Engineers, say he "was not sure that in 1928 the pollution problem was not worse than it is now."

And Lawrence Motl, chief engineer of the Wisconsin Conservation Department, told a recent Green Bay, Wis., meeting on Lake Michigan pollution that public waters in Wisconsin are 7 per cent less polluted today, despite the expansion of population and industry, than they were in 1949. Even in lower Green Bay, where the Fox River valley has had a population increase of 29 per cent since 1949 and where Green Bay's most serious pollution problem is contributed by the outpouring of Fox River wastes, the municipal pollution load is 9 per cent lower than in 1949 and the industrial pollution load is 27 per cent lower.

* * *

So there has been recognition of the pollution problem and progress in its abatement. But the problem continues to grow, so the abatement efforts must increase. The states have been pleading that they do not have resources to cope adequately with the problem, so Congress has been increasingly active in this field under the spur of the U. S. Public Health Service and other federal agencies.

These have been three major pieces of federal legislation: The Water Resources Research Act, the Water Resources Planning Act and the Water Quality Act of 1965. The U-M symposium couldn't agree on much except that water quality standards must be flexible and that new methods and techniques of water control are as necessary as they are lacking. But Senator Muskie (D-Maine) said that we know enough about needs and the problem already to make a substantial beginning toward ending poor quality water supply.

Senate Bill 2947, now before the House would provide $6 billion for new secondary sewage treatment plants as a beginning of a phase of pollution curb effort that will eventually require $20 billion as a conservative figure in the next 6 years. Total cost by the year 2000 would be at least $100 billion.

* * *

To translate this into common denominators, Escanaba has a secondary treatment plant and Gladstone a primary treatment plant. Both discharge their effluent into Little Bay de Noc, an arm of Green Bay. The Water Resources Division of the Michigan Conservation Department does not, as result of its testing, find Gladstone's waste discharge objectionable, but the federal government's approach to water quality standards would set secondary sewage treatment as a minimum standard for effluents discharged into public waters.

This would be expensive, of course, and the state's efforts toward water quality, both in Michigan and Wisconsin, have up to now suggested, "Why buy a Cadillac when a Chevy will do?" The prospect is that the federal government is going to step in where state action doesn't meet standards which the federal government regards as adequate.

* * *

James M. Quigley, the new federal water pollution control administrator, told the U-M symposium that the water standards should be set by the states in a flexible manner, so they can be raised or lowered at need, and that the standards will be "federal in nature, not national, and will vary from river to river, and even on a given river by industry and usage."

The implications here are huge. What is implied is federal control of land usage by industries and by municipalities. Economics could be evry strongly affected. If the federal government were to crack down on a paper mill in Northern Michigan, but let one in Louisiana discharge wastes, the Northern mill workers' jobs would be shaky.

The municipalities and other local governments, the sportsmen's club and industries and other concerned organizations should be involved actively in this determination. It will strongly affect their future and they have an obligation to develop a well-reasoned national policy on the subject.

"What's Up Your Sleeve?"

Cavanagh Is Trailing

By BRUCE BIOSSAT

LANSING, Mich. (NEA) — Unless there is a big silent vote for him or his last-minute television and jet-stop blitz works a miracle, Detroit's Mayor Jerome Cavanagh is widely expected to go crashing down before former Gov. G. Mennen (Soapy) Williams in today's test for a U.S. Senate nomination.

One normally very cautious Democratic professional hazards that Williams may take the Michigan primary by a margin of 65 to 35. Another, surveying the mayor's final burst of energy, says he is "slugging hard but hopelessly."

Why Michigan's Democratic organization and allied labor forces are almost solidly for Soapy is already well established. He is the recognized architect of the party's greatest successes from the late 1940s on.

* * *

To undercut Williams in his last hurrah on the stump would be like asking labor to topple Samuel Gompers' statue into the weeds.

Much more intriguing is the question why the 38-year-old Cavanagh imagined he could brush aside a powerful Williams challenge.

The available evidence suggests that the mayor, having tilted successfully against organization windmills in capturing his present office, sees himself as a vigorous adventurer who can triumph over the political dules at any level.

Says a respected party leader:

"He just thinks he can go out and swashbuckle his way through . . . He began believing in his star and his luck."

* * *

Cavanagh obviously counted on heavy support in Detroit and Wayne County. Polls indicate he is running a dozen points behind Williams in this vital territory. And the former governor appears to have a huge edge among the city's Negroes.

In a forecast of the Negroes' posture in the autumn campaign, leaflets reading "Romney and Williams" are being spread about today in Negro areas. GOP Gov. George Romney is a heavy Negro favorite.

By tradition, Detroit mayors face badly at the polls in outstate Michigan. Professionals think Cavanagh, beneficiary of much national attention as a good mayor, did not comprehend the force of this out-state opposition—and indifference.

The mayor's recent roundtrip whistle-stop train ride from Detroit to Grand Rapids heartened his lieutenants. But independent observers considered it a failure. They do not believe his jet-stop tour will help him greatly, either.

* * *

Mystifying to the experts is why Cavanagh started his campaign so late. He did nothing at all until returning from a three-week Europeon trip in mid-May. His really hard stumping did not begin until about a week after the Fourth of July.

Admittedly the mayor was somewhat trapped by his job. He held off full-scale campaigning until the final stage which he carefully labeled a "vacation" from his mayor's desk.

Yet the notion lingers in professional circles that here again he miscalculated the political realities.

A closing television splurge by an attractive, Kennedy-style figure might do wonders in some states, in some circumstances. The Cavanagh team had the springtime example of Milton Shapp's successful "saturation by television" in his stunning upset victory over an organization Democratic candidate for governor in Pennsylvania.

* * *

But Williams is no ordinary organization type. Nor is Michigan's Democratic organization the divided, enfeebled thing it is in Pennsylvania.

Cavanagh chose, too, to hinge his star to a dovelike position on Viet Nam. Williams stands close to the administration on this issue. Michigan appraisers guess the mayor is suffering a substantial net loss among state voters on this account.

Furthermore, the mayor's appeal has inevitably been to the rising numbers of young voter-eligibles in Michigan. But past records indicate that their voting turnout, particularly in primaries, is far below that of older adults who—in this instance—may remember and wish to reward the 55 year-old Williams.

* * *

Finally, Cavanagh supporters spread the word that their man would do much better than Williams in the November test against newly appointed Republican Sen. Robert Griffin. Reliable polls suggest, however, that Williams today is neck and neck with Griffin but that Cavanaugh trails him by a good margin.

AMC Dividend Omitted Again

DETROIT (AP) — Directors of American Motors have voted for the fourth consecutive quarter to omit payment of a dividend as earnings nosedived over those of a year ago.

AMC's net earnings for the third quarter of its fiscal year were $22,441 on net sales of $228,045,377.

A year ago, the earnings were $6,932,850, or 37 cents a share, on net sales of $270,568,123.

AMC said "all 1965 figures have been restated to include the accounts of Canadian subsidiaries."

For the nine months of the current fiscal year, the nation's fourth largest auto producer reported a net loss of $4,141,063, or 22 cents a share on net earnings of $707,132,291.

In the comparable nine months of 1965, net earnings were $18,240,926 or 96 cents a share on net sales of $834,208,097.

AMC said its worldwide vehicle sales since Oct. 1, 1965 totaled 288,376 vehicles compared with 353,478 for the same period a year ago. The third quarter figures were 90,015 this time compared with 114,434 for the same period a year ago.

Ann Landers

Sleepy Wife Doesn't Cook In Morning

Dear Ann Landers: As long as I can remember I have had a terrible time getting up in the morning. When I went to school my mother had to drag me out of bed because I could never hear the alarm clock. It's a miracle I graduated.

After I married it was the same story—until the children came. I'm sure God gives all mothers special ears. I always heard my children during the night no matter what the hour. This went on for many years.

Now that the children are grown I'm back in the old routine—sleeping through five-alarm fires and it's beginning to irritate my husband to the point where he is getting ugly about it.

Ellsworth enjoys a big breakfast and I would gladly prepare it if he would only get me up. Instead he waits until he is ready to leave. Then he gives me a shove and yells, "Well, I'm going to work now—hungry again, on account of you."

I keep telling him that if he'd shove me thirty minutes earlier he'd have breakfast. What should I do about this?—LOVE TO SLEEP IN THE MORNING

Dear Love: Ellsworth doesn't want breakfast. He'd rather needle you. So forget it, Toots, and enjoy your morning sleep.

When he gets to the point where he really wants something to eat in the morning, he'll wake you up in time.

* * *

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a 17-year-old boy who was recently given the privilege of using the family car. Last Tuesday was a very special affair and I promised my dad I would be home by 2:00 A. M.

I won't go into detail, but a lot of different things happened and I didn't get in until 5:00 A. M.

My father was waiting up and he really blew his stack. He asked how I had the nerve to bring a girl home at that hour—and what did her parents say? I explained that her parents were asleep and they did not know what time she came in.

Then he got madder yet and yelled, "What kind of parents could sleep while their 16-year-old daughter is out until dawn?"

Do you think my dad is a square? I need your answer so I will know how to look at this situation.—INDIGNANT

Dear In: Your dad sounds like a great guy to me. If there were more dads like yours around there would be fewer kids in trouble. Consider yourself lucky.

* * *

Dear Ann Landers: My problem ranks in importance somewhere below the Viet Nam situation but I'd appreciate your help.

Last week a relative phoned to tell me of the death of a third cousin whom I had not seen in years. The relative said, "Of course you want to send flowers. Why don't we pool our money, invite Gert to pitch in too, and then we can buy a really nice wreath?"

Frankly, I had no intention of sending flowers but I didn't want to appear petty, so I agreed. I sent her my check for $7.00 that very day. She said she would handle everything.

This morning I learned that the wreath was sent but my name was not on the card. What should I do now? My husband said to ignore it. I don't think I should. Please advise.—HAD

Dear Had: Don't ignore it. The florist may be at fault. Call your relative and ask what happened.

No teen-ager is as confident as he appears. Get clued in. Send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Dating Do's And Dont's," enclosing with your request 35c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped and self-addressed envelope.

The Doctor Says:

Side Effects Probable

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt

Q — I am crippled with arthritis. I have been taking Decadron for years. It has made my skin thin and caused fluid retention and moonface, so now I am trying to get along on Tandearil alone. How long will it take the side effects of the Decadron to go away? What side effects will the Tandearil cause?

A — You have to expect some side effects with nearly all modern drugs. The side effects of the Decadron, which belongs to the cortisone group should clear up in about a month after you stop taking it. Oxyphenbutazone (Tandearil) should be taken only under medical supervision — including periodic blood counts. Its side effects include nausea, waterlogging and a skin rash. On small doses these will not be troublesome but, if they persist, you should stop the drug.

Q — What could cause me to have hypertrophic arthritis at the age of 26?

A — Although hypertrophic or osteoarthritis is most common in persons who are over 50 it does occur in the mid 20s. The arthritic process may be accelerated by repeated injuries to a given joint. Heredity may also be a factor.

Q — I have arthritis of the neck. Limbering up exercises help to relieve the pain. Are these exercises generally harmful or helpful?

A — I assume you do not have the acute febrile stage of arthritis during which rest is beneficial. For most other manifestations of all kinds of arthritis exercise is helpful. It prevents stiffening of your joints and wasting of your muscles. For best results, exercise prescribed by a specialist in physical medicine are recommended.

Q — What is a frozen shoulder? What causes it? Can it be cured?

A — Frozen shoulder is a condition in which movement of the joint is limited. This may be a form of fibrositis or bursitis. It can be caused by injury, infection, gout or diabetes. The commonest cause, however, is strenuous prolonged use of the shoulder in an improper jerky way. Both hot and cold applications, various forms of physiotherapy and cortisone or related drugs may be helpful, but your doctor should determine the exact cause before any treatment is prescribed.

Q — What causes enlargement of the heart? Can anything be done for it?

A—Enlargement of the heart may be caused by high blood pressure, diseased heart valves, chronic bronchitis, emphysema overactivity or underactivity of the thyroid and severe vitamin B deficiency. The treatment would have to be tailored to fit the cause.

Escanaba Daily Press:

The greatest essay on Michigan Tourism ever printed is the description I give your editorial of July 19. Please accept warm and sincere congratulations from me, from my officers and members.

Without a doubt you have, in a well rounded essay, told the Michigan Tourism story as it is today. It applies to every county, city and village in the Upper Peninsula and in addition, every county, city and village in the lower peninsula.

I am sincerely hopeful that other editors around the state will read your editorial and be alerted by its message. Perhaps some will reprint it. I hope so.

Your message of recognition to tourism is a tremendous contribution to the job of making every citizen know what makes our state exist. The key to tourism's success lies not only in recognition but also in the public support of the fact that tourism is earned, from day to day and year to year, an 'alive' economic phenomena.

People travel only when they are motivated and it is in the interest of every UP citizen to see that as many people as possible are invited to come to enjoy a visit in your lovely UP. This is the job performed by Ken Dorman and the Upper Michigan Tourist Association. It is not an easy job and it is even tougher when you run head-on into public apathy at what makes tourism work. Your editorial is a splendid effort to help eliminate this apathy. Again, congratulations on a fine essay.

Escanaba Daily Press:

The efforts of the Escanaba Press to bring the message of fire prevention to the people of this area is commendable. You were alert to the increasing rise in burning conditions, and you took the initiative to bring this message forcefully to the people. I am sure our record of low fire occurrence during the past week reflects the value of this fire cooperation.

The number of fires prevented by a news release or a fire prevention advertisement will never be known. The contribution to conservation by a newspaper telling the true story of natural resources and our management of them is difficult to appreciate. Even if them is difficult to measure. Over the 60 years of Forest Service history we have learned that the contributions of the press are infinitely great. The Escanaba Press carries on the tradition in this community.

To you and to all the contributing business men of the area, the Forest Service says, Thank You.

Sincerely yours,
Sherwood C. Trotter

SAYS MRS. JOHNSON about her daughter, "I'm going to miss those late midnight talks."

'At Home, Things Just Won't Be The Same'

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson thinks of her daughter Luci as at once a sprite and the "family philosopher."

Says Mrs. Johnson:

"She comes in spreading gaiety and fun. The atmosphere always clears up when she walks in. We'll miss her."

This gay spirit will be missed, of course, because she is marrying Patrick J. Nugent, 23, of Waukegan, Ill., himself a happy type though evidently a good deal more reserved than Luci.

Mrs. Johnson is extremely pleased over her daughter's marriage. But she says she knows that there will be many times, in the weeks and months ahead, when she will be "suddenly swept with loneliness" as she peers into Luci's empty bedroom on the second floor of the White House. And she adds:

"Luci is the philosopher of the family. I'm going to miss those late midnight talks."

Luci herself muses a little sadly over the prospect:

"It's difficult to realize that things just won't be the same."

Luci's parents have always stressed her appealing femininity. They seemed to assume she would be the first to be married. Yet Lynda, her older sister, would have pre-empted that honor had she not broken off her engagement to a young naval officer in early 1964.

Luci and Pat had their first date around the time he was graduated from Marquette University in Milwaukee in June, 1965. Their close bond developed only as mutual interests began to be clear.

Pat's friends consider him friendly, capable, but reserved. "Nuge," as they called him in school, kept close to his chest his visits to Luci at the White House and in Texas.

Recently Pat has been working as an administrative aide to a firm in Washington that advises schools everywhere how to get funds and services they are entitled to have under various education programs.

This fall at the University of Texas, as he and Luci take up residence in their rather small "old brick" duplex house (rented) in Austin, Pat will begin studying for a master's degree in business administration, his prime interest.

Luci indicates they have somehow saved enough to carry them through their first year or so together, even though Pat presumably can earn money only in the summertime. It is a fair guess that, like many a young beginning couple today, they will get a healthy boost or two from their parents.

When they settle down in Austin, Luci's spotlighted existence as the daughter of Lyndon Johnson will not end. Secret Service agents will continue to guard her 24 hours a day. Cameras will be close by whenever she is making the slightest move.

But friends of Luci and Pat think their personal makeup and the record of their young lives both suggest that they will bear calmly the burden of attention and gain for themselves a reasonably good chance at normal living.

52nd U.P. Men's Golf Tourney Begins Wednesday In Escanaba

Peterson To Bid For Repeat Title

Ontonagon's young Bill Peterson will face a strong challenge beginning Wednesday in his bid to become the fifth golfer in history to win back-to-back Upper Peninsula Men's Amateur golf championships.

The 52nd annual U. P. tournament opens 72-hole medal play at the Escanaba Country Club and Highland Golf club courses tomorrow morning. Host for the tournament is the Country Club.

A field of about 160 golfers is expected to begin teeing off at both courses for 36-hole qualifying play at 9 a. m.

Third round of the tournament is scheduled Friday with finals of the championship flight Saturday afternoon at the Country Club.

Peterson who defeated Joe Bociak of Ishpeming in the finals last year at Marquette to win his first title, checked in to Escanaba over the weekend for practice rounds Monday and today over both golf courses.

He has already accomplished one thing this year that no other golfer had been able to do for five years — break the run of Tiziani victories in the Gogebic Country Club's shortstop tournament. He also earlier captured the Ishpeming Shortstop at Wawanowin Country Club.

Only Four Repeat

The only four men who have put together back-to-back titles are Don Boyce of Escanaba in 1928-29, George Nolan Jr. of Gogebic Country Club in 1936-37, Don Feller of Escanaba in 1946-47 and Willie Thompsen of Menominee Riverside Country Club. Thompson did it twice, in 1956-57 and again in 1960-61.

Feller, 1964 champion Walter Johnson of Crystal Falls, and 1950 winner Jack Miller of St. Ignace are among the top challengers for Peterson's title.

Also entered are Ken F. Hruska, former Menominee star now playing out of Marquette who recently set a course record 30 at Marquette Country Club, last year's runnerup Bociak, Country Club champion and four-time U. P. runnerup Elmer Swanson and low handicappers from nearly all of the 23 member clubs in the U. P. Golf Association.

Defending team champion is Marquette.

Conditions Ideal

Team championship will be decided on basis of 36-hole qualifying scores — 18 holes at each course. Golfers who start at the Country Club Wednesday will shift to the Highland Thursday. Wednesday starters at the Highland will move to the Country Club Thursday.

Host Professional Jim Crichton said today that both golf courses are in near perfect condition for the start of the tournament after Monday's all-day rain. The rain has softened fairways and greens, making playing conditions ideal.

Competition will be conducted under United States Golf Association rules, except for specific situations modified by tournament rules. Copies of tournament rules will be available to all players on the first tee.

All entrants must be members of U. P. Golf Association member clubs. Competitors will not be allowed use of motorized golf farts. Winter rules will be played.

Meeting Scheduled

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the U. P. G. A. is scheduled for 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Country Club with the annual player's banquet set from 6 to 10 p.m. Thursday at the Country Club.

Co-chairmen for the tournament are Don Scott and Dick Knoll. Jim Kennedy is in charge of registration. Members of the scoring and flight placement committee are Don Golais and Jim Crichton of the Country Club and Ed McCarthy and Jack Smith of Highland. Ed Gravelle is grounds committee chairman. Harry Hogan is in charge of prizes, Al Kidd the banquet and Dave Andrews and Jim Zimmerman publicity.

Members of the rules committee are Goulais, Feller, Gravelle, Hogan, McCarthy, Smith, Crichton, Hazen Hengesh and Einar Beck.

New Falcons Scare Eagles In Debut

ATLANTA (AP) — The Atlanta Falcons came through their National Football League initiation confident they won't be everybody's patsy this fall.

"We'll whip somebody, you can count on that," Coach Norb Hecker promised Monday night after the Falcons turned back every touchdown threat but were beaten 9-7 by the Philadelphia Eagles on three field goals in the opening exhibition game of the season.

"Our defense played a helluva game," Hecker said. "It's a shame to hold a team without a touchdown and still lose."

Sam Baker booted field goals of 28, 24 and 25 yards for enough points to keep Philadelphia from becoming the first team ever to lose to the Falcons, who sparkled on defense in their NFL debut.

"Aren't Pushovers"

Coach Joe Kuharich of the Eagles agreed that the Falcons put up a stiff fight.

"They aren't pushovers," Kuharich said. "They've got veterans — and most of them are pretty good — at every position."

The two standouts for the Falcons, however, had seen only limited pro action before being acquired by Atlanta when it started to build its team last winter.

Ron Smith, defensive halfback for the Falcons, was with the Bears last fall but was used only as a spot player. Dennis Claridge, Atlanta quarterback, had been used on only three plays in two seasons with Green Bay.

Claridge completed 10 of 16 passes, including a one-yard touchdown toss just before the half to Tom Wilson, which gave the Falcons a 7-6 lead.

The touchdown was set up by a pass interception by Smith, who earlier snuffed a Philadelphia threat with another interception. Smith also gave the Falcons a final chance at victory when he returned a punt 42 yards with a minute left.

Gilchrist Quits

The AFL opens its exhibition schedule tonight in Houston with the Oilers meeting the Oakland Raiders. Each has a new coach, Wally Lemm at Houston replacing Bones Taylor, and Johnny Rauch at Oakland replacing Al Davis.

Player squabbles, holdouts, walk outs and non-appearances continued to dominate the training camp news, however.

Fullback Cookie Gilchrist of the Denver Broncos said he was quitting the American Football League "with deep regrets" because he doesn't like the management.

End Art Powell and halfback Clem Daniels walked out of the Raiders' Santa Rosa, Calif., training camp after failing to come to contract terms and the Raiders issued a statement saying they "contemplate playing the 1966 season without Daniels and Powell."

In Honolulu, 49er quarterback John Brodie said he is ready to end his holdout, return to the mainland and sign his contract.

Veteran guard Ted Karras showed up in the Detroit Lions' training camp Monday, but couldn't come to terms. He is expected to work out with the team today, however.

A number of players signed—including former NFL defensive standout John Sample of Baltimore—with the New York Jets.

All-Stars Need Standout Effort

CHICAGO (AP) — Coach John Sauer, claiming it takes one or two standout performances to beat the pros, likes his College All-Stars' chances against the Green Bay Packers Friday night.

"I think our chances are as great as they have been in other years when we have won," said Sauer. "But it does take a standout performance to do the job.

"We have a great squad which has worked hard but I think our greatest strength this year is in our backfield."

Sauer, who was a member of Coach Otto Graham's staff the last seven years and is getting his first shot as head coach, said his backfield strength is collective.

"I don't mean to say the backs are individually great," said Sauer. "I mean they are the best we've had as a group. They can all run, block and catch passes.

"One thing we plan to do against the Packers is have fresh backs in their all the time. We have no injuries and everyone is eager to go."

Among the backfield corps are Donny Anderson of Texas Tech and Jim Grabowski of Illinois — both high-priced rookies who will join the Packers following the game.

Then there are Mike Garrett of Southern California, the Heisman Trophy winner, Walt Garrison of Oklahoma State and Roy Shivers of Utah State, who made a fine showing in last week's scrimmage against the Chicago Bears.

Linebackers Tommy Nobis of Texas and quarterback Steve Sloan of Alabama were named co-captains by their teammates Monday.

Regan Has Good Week, Dodgers Maintain Lead

By The Associated Press

It's been a most productive week for Phil Regan, who used to worry about his share in baseball's pension plan and now thinks about a World Series share instead.

Regan won his third game in six days Monday night when Los Angeles rallied for four runs in the ninth inning on homers by John Roseboro and Jim Gilliam and defeated Pittsburgh 5-1.

The victory kept the Dodgers in first place in the National League, three percentage points in front of San Francisco and a full game up on the Pirates, who lost their fourth straight.

It raised Regan's season's record to 10-1. The veteran right-hander, who virtually dealt himself to the Dodgers last fall, has saved nine games and has an earned run average of 1.52, best on the pitching-rich Los Angeles staff.

A year ago Regan was toiling with Detroit's International League farm team at Syracuse, hoping to pitch his way back into the majors. He needed just 14 more days on a major league roster to qualify for the pension plan.

Requested Trade

"I was really disappointed," Regan recalled. "I thought seriously of going home. But I remembered I only needed 14 days to complete five years, so I reported to Syracuse."

It was while pitching there that Regan learned the Dodgers were interested in him. "I called Jim Campbell Detroit's general manager; and asked to be traded."

The deal was made last November, just 30-minutes before the inter-league deadline, with the Dodgers swapping utility infielder Dick Tracewski for Regan.

It wasn't the biggest bargain ever. The Indians got only $24 for Manhattan Island.

Elsewhere, San Francisco kept pace with the Dodgers by downing New York 4-2, Philadelphia edged Houston 6-5 in 10 innings and Cincinnati topped St. Louis 3-2.

Pirate starter Tommy Sisk protected a 1-0 lead against Sandy Koufax for seven innings but the Dodgers tied it in the eighth, Gilliam, pinch hitting, walked, and came around on singles by Jim Barbieri and Maury Wills.

Dick Stuart opened the Dodger ninth with a walk and then Roseboro connected, snapping the tie. After Jim Lefebvre singled, Gilliam gave Regan the extra cushion with his first homer of the year.

Bob Priddy worked eight innings of scoreless relief as the Giants bounced back to defeat the pesky Mets.

Rich Allen led off the 10th inning with an inside-the-park homer that gave the Phillies their victory over the Astros. Houston's Jim Wynn crashed into the center field wall trying for the catch and was carried off the field on a stretcher. He suffered a dislocated left elbow.

Cincinnati won its 12th game in the last 15 by whipping the Cardinals with four pitchers limiting St. Louis to four hits. Gordy Coleman homered for the winners.

McLain, Tigers Face White Sox

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers, who saw their pennant dreams shattered in July, start the campaign for August against the Chicago White Sox at Tiger Stadium tonight.

Denny McLain will start for the Tigers in the opener of a three-game series.

Detroit played at an 11-21 pace during July and start the new month at 55-47 and 13 games behind the league-leading Baltimore Orioles.

In This Corner

The 52nd Upper Peninsula Golf Association Men's Amateur tournament which opens at the Country Club and Highland Golf Club course Wednesday is the sixth in the long history hosted by Escanaba. The last time the tournament was here — with Highland the host club — Bill Connors of Marquette won the individual title and Escanaba Country Club the team crown.

★ ★ ★

Missing from the field will be Jerry Martin, current Tri-Club and Highland champion and perhaps the steadiest player in the area. Martin is in St. Vincent's Hospital, Green Bay, Wis., undergoing treatment for a neck and back injury suffered in an automobile accident last winter. Harry Hogan, three-time U. P. champion, will also miss the tournament.

★ ★ ★

With Monday's rain, both golf courses should be in the best playing condition of the season. New sand has been placed in all traps on both courses and fairways are so green members of the tournament committee had considered playing summer rules.

★ ★ ★

The U. P. Men's tournament next year is scheduled at Iron Mountain, the first time the men will play the championship over Pine Grove Country Club's new 18-hole layout.

★ ★ ★

The home club has produced 15 of 51 champions in the tournament since its beginning in 1912. The last home club victory was by Willie Thompsen, who won at Menominee Riverside Country Club in 1960.

★ ★ ★

Escanaba Country Club has produced the most individual champions over the years with 14, followed by Riverside with 11, Pine Grove at Iron Mountain with six and Marquette and Portage Lake at Houghton, each with five. The Country Club also has the most team championships, 13.

Graham Sees Pro Change, Tries To Transform Skins

(Second of Series on Pro Football Team Prospects)

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP) — When Otto Graham moved to Washington to tackle his first pro coaching job, he told people, "Don't bother to make any 'Goodbye, Otto' signs because I am going to be around for a while.

The former quarterback great of the Cleveland Browns was not kidding. He is here to stay, perhaps for 10 years, under the terms of a lucrative contract arranged by Edward Bennett Williams, the famous lawyer who runs the National Football League club.

"A year ago this was the furthest thing from my mind," said Graham, who gave up a job as coach at the Coast Guard Academy to take over at Washington. "But football is football, no matter where you go. The fundamentals still are blocking and spirit."

Otto found pro football changed since his days under Coach Paul Brown of the Browns. "They shoot the linebackers more now," he said. "We never had safety red dogs.

"The offenses have changed, too. When Marion Motley was a fullback, we used him more for screens and traps. Now a fullback is just another running back. He goes out on pass patterns and does not have to do so much blocking."

Graham realizes he is facing a tough job, transforming a 6-8 club into a contender. The Redskins have not played .500 ball since 1956.

Graham said he expected to let his quarterback, Sonny Jurgensen, call most of the plays. In his days at Cleveland, he sometimes complained that Coach Brown sent in too many.

With Jurgensen and young Dick Shiner to back him up, Graham should have enough quarterbacking. However, he is in dire need of more running backs. He is very thin back of Charley Taylor and George Hughley, although he had hopes for rookie Tom Barrington of Ohio State.

Taylor Disappointment

Taylor was a disappointment last year after a fine rookie season. He suffered a broken ankle in a preseason game in 1965 and never regained his 1964 form. Hughley picked up from the Canadian League and a fine fullback, Pres Carpenter, veteran tight end, even got a look at running back.

Bobby Mitchell at flanker, delighted with his new end coach, Ray Renfro, is the Redskins' best receiver. Pat Richter and Jerry Smith are the other starters with Jim Snowden a regular offensive tackle as a rookie, taking a shot at tight end.

Len Hauss at center and Vince Promuto and Darrell Dess or Don Croftcheck are solid at guards. Fran O'Brien is the left tackle but the right tackle is open if Snowden stays at end. John McDowell, acquired from New York, may win the job.

The contract troubles of John Paluck, which resulted in an announcement he would retire left a gap at defensive left end. Paluck probably will be traded to some other club eventually. Carl Kammerer is the other end but tackle Ron Snidow may be moved to Paluck's old job.

Rookie Walt Barnes in the College All-Star camp, or the veteran Fred Williams would team with Joe Rutgens at tackle in such a case. Rookie Dick Lemay at the All-Star camp is another possibility.

Linebacking is thin with the retirement of Jim Carr and Bob Pellegrini. Sam Huff is back in the middle and John Regre has decided to come out of retirement to play a corner position. Chris Hanburger will be the other regular. Willie Adams also is available and Croftcheck has been working at linebacker.

Rickie Harris, the fine runback man of last year, moves into the left corner back job vacated by Johnny Sample, who retired. Lonnie Sanders is at the other corner with Jim Steffen at strong safety and all-pro Paul Krause at free safety. Rookie Bill Clay of Mississippi has been handicapped by a knee injury.

Washington's big rookie is Charlie Gogolak of Princeton, the soccer-style place kicker who broke all the NCAA records last year. He has been shuttling between the Skins and the All-Star camp.

Car Makers Plan Big September

DETROIT (AP) — Auto production in U.S. plants came to 461,380 cars in July according to preliminary reports Monday by the four auto companies. It was well below the 740,133 cars built in July, 1962.

The big difference this time, according to automotive sources was that the industry closed up its 1966 model operations earlier than it did a year ago.

For the calendar year to date, output came to 5,380,268 new cars, well below the 5,898,857 built in the same seven months last year.

Production schedules call for 173,000 cars to be built this month as the industry builds the final 1966 models and picks up speed on its 1967 model output.

September plans call for a record breaking 709,000 cars to be built, a higher goal than in any previous September. A year ago, the figure was 491,491, and in Sept. 1964 it was 572,864.

Beer Ration For Cubans Is Cut

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Cubans get only half as much beer as before the Fidel Castro era, says a newly arrived refugee who worked in breweries 17 years.

The Cuban, Luis Vazquez Fernandes, said Cuba produced 6,720,000 bottles of the foamy stuff daily in 1958 — about one for every inhabitant.

"Not only has the production fallen 50 per cent, but the beer is of an inferior quality, and costs more," Vazquez said.

TV Change Can Come Very Fast

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Change comes to Hollywood by extremes—very fast or very slow.

The instant success of ABC's "Batman" last season immediately turned television's attention to other cartoon and old radio characters. Next season ABC will follow up with "The Green Hornet," and NBC is preparing a TV version of "Dick Tracy."

Other similar properties, including "Orphan Annie," are available.

The same thing has happened before—"The Man From U.N.C.L.E." unleashed a rash of shows with James Bond heroes. And it will happen again with "The Girl From U.N.C.L.E." on NBC next season.

The fantasy fad, kicked off two seasons ago with "Bewitched," appears to be waning.

Its last vestige will be "It's About Time," a CBS comedy about a coupie of astronauts caught in a space mishap that lands them back on earth a million years ago. The show will bid for laughs by contrasting modern men with their ancestors.

Space adventure and science fiction will figure prominently in next season's scheduled, undoubtedly because "Lost In Space" and "Voyage To The Bottom Of The Sea" have done pretty well. Upcoming: "Star Trek" on NBC and "Time Tunnel" on ABC.

NBC, obviously upset by ABC's last-minute decision to launch most of its new programs a week ahead of the planned three-network premiere week, announced Monday it would have "sneak previews" of three new programs a week early, too. Thus on Thursday, Sept. 8, we can get our first look at "Star Trek," "The Hero," a comedy about a TV star, and "Tarzan."

CBS News will present a news special tonight (10-11 EDT) on the airline strike, pre-empting a rerun of a "CBS Reports" show about unidentified flying objects.

Eisenhower To Leave Hospital In Day Or Two

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is expected to be released Wednesday or Thursday from Walter Reed Army Hospital here, the hospital reports.

He has been undergoing a routine checkup for more than a week.

"Examinations and studies are now being completed," said a medical bulletin issued late Monday. "He (Eisenhower) is getting along very well.

"He came to Walter Reed for a general checkup of his heart and arthritic conditions and no new organ ics were found," the bulletin continued. "The examinations were of a routine nature."

Eisenhower, who suffered a major heart attack in 1955 and another last fall, entered the hospital this time July 25.

AMC Reports Profits Drop

DETROIT (AP) -- A drop in profits from $7 million to $22,441 in its last quarter was reported Monday by American Motors Corp.

Profits for the April-June period equaled less than a tenth of a cent per share, compared with 37 cents a share in the comparable period a year ago.

AMC directors voted to omit the common stock dividend. Last year AMC paid a dividend of 12.5 cents a share on the quarterly profits of $7 million That was the last dividend issued by the firm.

Robert B. Evans, chairman, and Roy Abernethy, president, said "There is some evidence consumers are taking a fresh look at our current American Motors cars and that they are changing their minds favorably about them."

AMC, fourth largest of the U.S. automobile firms, was the last company to report declining profits for the last quarter. General Motors, Ford and Chrysler issued second quarter reports last week, and all of them trailed earnings in the comparable period of 1965.

AMC's report covered its third quarter. American Motors operates on a fiscal year ending Sept. 30.

Traffic Deaths On 4th All Laid To Driver Failure

DETROIT (AP) — Driver failures caused all of Michigan's 26 traffic deaths during the Fourth of July weekend, the Automobile Club of Michigan reported Sunday.

The Auto Club said the three-week investigation of holiday traffic fatals showed drinking drivers were involved in 41 per cent of the fatal accidents. That figure does not include those suspected of drinking.

"Although four of the death cars had poor tires which may have been contributing factors to these accidents," said Fred Rehm, Auto Club's general manager, "no other mechanical defects which could have caused accidents were found."

None of the victims had seat belts fastened when they were available, the report said.

The Auto Club pointed out that 62 per cent of the accidents were single - car mishaps. Rehm said this type of accident usually happens when drivers fall asleep or travel too fast for conditions and lose control of their cars.

Similar findings resulted from an investigation of Memorial Day fatals which the auto club made.

Medicare Surge At U Hospital Is Not Heavy

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The University of Michigan Hospital reports demand for outpatient services under the medicare program is far less than expected.

Richard J. Hinds, assistant hospital administrator, said today the hospital has reduced the 11 per cent of outpatient clinic time it had reserved during July for patients over age 65.

He said specialists in 29 areas of medicine at the hospital reported less demand for services than expected.

The hospital treated 1,945 outpatients under medicare in July -about 50 persons per working day. Hinds said greatest demand was in the internal medicine department which had 298 visits by medicare patients. In opthalmaology there was 165 and in surgery 88.

Hospital administrators said it would take a year or two before they can predict accurately the demand for all services by medicare patients.

Dodge Yacht May Be A School Ship

DETROIT (AP) — Roy A. Swayze says he plans to buy what may be the ultimate status symbol—a double-decker steam yacht that cost $2 million to build.

Swayze, of Fairfax, Va. said that he represents a group which holds an option to buy the yacht for $86,000 from Mrs. Anna Thompson Dooge, widow of auto pioneer Horace Dodge.

Swayze said his syndicate is made up of 32 persons who have invested $5,000 each to buy and repair the 257-foot yacht, "Delphine," which is billed as the largest steam yacht flying the U. S. flag and one of the 10 largest in the world.

He said it cost $2 million to build the Delphine in 1921 and would cost $4 million to duplicate today.

"We are studying two alternate plans," Swayze said. "One is to use her as a school ship, taking youngsters of high school age and offering organized classes along with three-month world tours.

"The other alternative is to use her as the nucleus for a travel club, with members and their families sharing the costs of annual cruises."

We wish to take this means of expressing our sincere appreciation of the wonderful acts of kindness shown us by neighbors and friends at the time of the death of our dear mother, Mrs. Louise Mosier Larsen. Especially do we wish to thank Fr. John V. Suhr, those who sent cards, spiritual and floral bouquets, all who donated food for the dinner and all others who aided us in so many ways. The memory of these acts of kindness will always remain with us.

MSU Freshmen – Most Aided Ever

EAST LANSING (AP) — Freshmen entering Michigan State University this fall will be "the most aided ever to enter an educational institution in the state," says an MSU official.

About 30 per cent of the anticipated 7,700 freshmen will receive some form of financial aid —totaling about $2 million in state, federal, university and private funds, said Gordor Sabine, vice president for special projects.

Classes will start Sept. 29 for an estimated 38,000 students. Sabine said in a back - to - school statement.

New this year will be the MSU College of Human Medicine, which will start with a class of 26 students. The program, part of a six - year curriculum, will provide students with the first two years of medical school.

MSU, however, is now asking the State Board of Education to authorize expanding the program into a four - year medical school.

Among the new financial aids available to students will be guaranteed bank loans and educational opportunity grants — provided under the new federal higher education act.

And an estimated 400 more students than last year will find part time work on campus this year under the work - study program of the Federal Economic Opportunities Act.

Marathon Will Close Refinery

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP) — Marathon Oil Co. said Monday it would discontinue refinery operations at its Muskegon, Mich plant by the end of this year.

Marathon said it would seek to find jobs at its other plants here and abroad for the 100 employes affected by the Muskegon shutdown.

Marathon officials said the future of the 37-year-old plant had been under review for several years. Some of its facilities will be used as a refined products terminal from which gasoline and related products will be distributed. A large portion of the 60-acre site will be cleared.

Austin Slayings Spur Dodd Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chief Senate sponsor of an administration bill to control the sale of firearms says he hopes passage will be spurred by the fatal shootings in Austin, Tex.

Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., said in a statement:

"The incident. . . in Austin is an extreme example of what has been going on for much too long in this country.

"Rifles are used to murder and wound tens of thousands of people annually.

"I hope these shootings in Austin will cause those who have fought controls over the sale of rifles to any criminal or deranged person to have second thoughts."

Volume Growing:

C&NW Shipping More Iron Ore

Escanaba, the only iron port on Lake Michigan, is topping last year's ore loadings and at mid-season has moved out more than three million tons of ore, it is reported by the Chicago & North Western Railway.

Lee McMillan, C&NW dock agent, said today that "more ore is being shipped in fewer boats" and the volume of pellet ore is expected to go above last year as the season advances.

The ore boats are much larger than a few years ago and a dock record was set recently when one cargo of 25,000 tons was taken on at Escanaba.

Ore loadings in July totaled 891,044 tons in 58 boats, compared to 814,835 tons in 62 boats for the same month a year ago, McMillan said.

These shipments brought the total to Aug. 1, to 3,260,966 tons, loaded out in 227 boats; compared to 3,199,874 tons of ore loaded into 232 boats for the same period in 1965, the Chicago & North Western figures reveal.

The tonnage for this season may reach 6½ million tons, silghtly higher than last year if the present pace keeps up.

The volume of pelletized ore is increasing slightly—but only slightly—over last year, McMillan said. Pellet ore represented about 50 per cent of the total for the year and this year the quantity of pellet ore may run to about 51 per cent.

The regular or unprocessed ore constitutes the remainder of the tonnage that comes to Escanaba from the Menominee and Marquette ranges.

Wife And Mother Of Gunner Dead

behind trees and buildings.

Witnesses said the sniper's bursts were at times spaced about half a minute apart, at other times rattling off in staccato fashion. At one point police even suspected there might be more than one man firing at them. The sniper dashed from place to place in the observatory and his fire came from all directions.

Call Armored Trucks

The blistering fire pinned down rescuers. Finally armored trucks were pressed into service as ambulances scurried about the no-man's land picking up the wounded.

One of the wounded was Robert Heard, Associated Press reporter, shot through the shoulder as he tried to dash across open ground to a better vantage point.

The victims were taken to Brackenridge Hospital, operated by the city. Many were treated in hallways on stretchers as the emergency room facilities became overtaxed with the arrival of each ambulance.

Volunteer blood donors also flocked to the hospital as news of the massacre spread about the city.

Police Chief Robert Miles said that during all the shooting there was no concrete plan for capturing the sniper.

Drove Plane Away

At one point Whitman's accurate fire drove away a light plane carrying a police sharpshooter who wanted to pick off the sniper from the air.

Then Ramiro Martinez, 29, a five-year police veteran, arrived on the scene from his home, where he had been relaxing off duty.

Alternately crawling and running, he reached the main entrance of the tower, followed by George McCoy, 26, another officer. They gave a rifle to Allen Crum, a university employe.

The three men made their way to the observation section, where they separated. As Martinez rounded a corner he saw the sniper and fired.

The sniper wheeled then snapped back one shot. Martinez emptied his pistol at the sniper as McCoy rushed onto the platform firing his shotgun. One of Martinez' bullets hit the sniper in the neck. A buckshot pellet from McCoy's shotgun hit the sniper between the eyes. The battle was over.

Six Year Marine

Whitman served six years in the Marine Corps, from July 6, 1959, to July 18, 1965. He earned the good conduct medal, but in 1963 a court-martial convicted him of violating orders and he was reduced in rank from corporal to private and given 30 days restriction and hard labor.

Photographs show Whitman was a handsome, solidly built young man with blond, crew-cut hair and pleasant eyes.

Chancellor Harry Ransom said Whitman's academic record at the university was above average.

In his home town, Lake Worth, Fla., Whitman's friends recalled him as a normal, friendly boy.

Romney Lauds Youths' Creed

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney today praised the work of 65 young people who drew up a "creed for the youth of Michigan," including the provision: "We affirm our respect for the adult generation."

The creed was prepared by the Youth Advisory Council of the Michigan Youth Commission. Romney asked the commission to give the creed the widest possible distribution.

Members of the council were selected by some 30 major youth organizations throughout the state.

"We have preapred this creed in an attempt to define and affirm our generation's beliefs as guidelines for a better tomorrow," said Ron Wilkins of Detroit, council chairman, in presenting the creed to Romney.

Romney said council members "have given not only their fellow young people but adults as well a set of guiding principles worthy of study, discussion and action."

The creed:

"We strike for integrity of character, realizing the importance of moral obligations to ourselves and to society.

"We recognize the family unit as the basic source of personal values and guidance and believe that free and honest communication, based on love and understanding, will foster mutual respect. . . .

"We realize that the right to education implies both privilege and responsibility, and provides for us a basic tool for personal growth, success, and a better life. . . .

"We uphold the basic right of all men for equal opportunity to develop and contribute to their maximum capacities. In our everyday relationships, we shall work to achieve a true brotherhood of man."

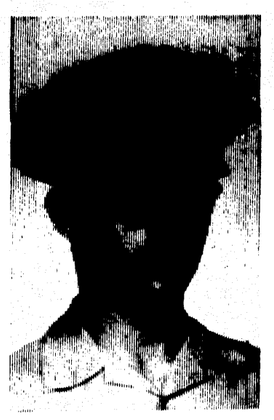
Lansing Store Loss $500,000 In Fire Today

LANSING (AP) — Fire destroyed a two-story furniture store in downtown Lansing today, causing a loss estimated at $500,000.

Lansing Fire Chief Victor Space said the blaze apparently broke out in an elevator shaft. It was discovered shortly after 4 a.m. by a policeman.

More than 100 firemen fought the fire, which reached its peak about 7 a.m. It was fanned by a brisk wind.

Fire officials estimated the loss at $150,000 for the building and about $350,000 for furniture, carpeting and appliances stored on three floors, including the basement.



AIRMAN Dennis D. Deneau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Deneau, Gladstone Rte. 1 has been selected for technical training at Sheppard AFB, Tex., as a U.S. Air Force aircraft maintenance specialist. He recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex. Airman Deneau was graduated from Gladstone High School in 1966.

Admiral Sharp Confident War Now Being Won

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — "We're fighting the war the right way," says Adm. U.S. Grant Sharp, commander, U.S. military forces in the Pacific.

"It may be a long process, but I'm encouraged and confident we will win. When the Viet Cong come out and fight they usually get shellacked.

"Our constant air strikes keep them jumping," Sharp said Monday after two days of conferences on logistic problems. He expects to return to his Hawaii headquarters Wednesday.

Annexation Is Meeting Topic

Members of the Nadeau Township School District in Menominee County are invited to a public meeting at 8 p. m. Thursday in the Carney School to hear a review of the proposal to annex the system to the Stephenson Consolidated School District.

Voters of the Nadeau Township District will ballot on the issue on Monday, Aug. 8. Some of the proponent of the annexation have expressed fear that it may fail for lack of understanding of what is proposed.

The annexation is being advocated to get the benefits of a larger school district with more complete high school program of studies for Nadeau Township students.

Meeting with Supt. Leno Pieropon last Thursday to plan more public education on the annexation were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Anderla, Oren Beato, Mrs. Fred Janofski, Mrs. Joe Linder, Mrs. Harold Neece, Clifford Perras, Vincent Peterson and Philip Verbisky.

This group decided to sponsor the public meeting Thursday evening in the Carney School.

Discussed will be these questions:

1. Can we continue to operate a Class D high school at Carney successfully?
2. Are there advantages in joining a larger high school system?
3. Should we vote for or against annexation to the Stephenson Consolidated Schools?

Questions will be welcomed.
